

Bazette Texas
Dec. 24th, 1895

Dear S.H. I doant guess I can ever get to come to your house to see you any more, but I dont guess that will keep us from seeing each other for I will met you any where you say, at any time. I heard you was going to Kerens to day to stay next week. If you are please let me know and I will come and we will have a big time. If you don't go to stay I will meet you anywhere else that you can go. I would like to be with you this eavening for I know we would have a big time.

I guess the old foaks give me and you both a blessing out the ohter night after I left. but never mind if you love me as I do you there will com a time when we will show them a trick. I would like to get to talk with you a little while. Please answer this and tell me wheather you can meet me or not and where at

Well I guess I will see you this eavening when you pass
Bazette

excuse led pincil and missed spelled words for I am in a hurry

Good By

Yours Truly

T. S. Ester

Forest Rose Tex
April 1st 95

Miss Eunice. Banks.
Dear Girl.

All fools day has come,
How glad I am to see.
It gives me a chance to tell you,
That you are the girl for me.

And now if I convince you
Of the truth I've thus expressed,
I'll be all smiles tonight love,
And lay me down to rest.

You are a perfect angel,
And sweet as you can be,
In your presence--I'm in heaven
O! You are the girl for me.

Now say dear--Don't you love me?
I know you are young, & shy,
But don't say no for my sake,
Bad language makes me cry.

Speak softly while I listen,
Oh! What will your answer be?
Before you speak remember,
You are the girl for me.

O now I see! you laughing,
And now I hear the yes
So I'll be all smiles tonight--love
And lay me down & rest.

Let this be a strange secret,
Be sure don't tell Aunt Pea,
But let the rest of the world know,
You are the girl for me.

So says your

Jake.